Dear Dr. Lisandro Montesinos Salazar

On behalf of the Council of the Academic Union (AU, Oxford, UK) and the Achievement Forum Organizing Committee, we express our respect and gratitude for your consistent work in the field of scientific research, education and educational management and innovative development of modern society.

We hope for mutual cooperation with Technological University of Selva and would be glad to be useful for you. The Academic Union seeks to popularize your activities, scientific research, innovative discoveries and achievements in Europe and worldwide and to broaden the participation of Technological University of Selva in international educational projects and programs.

We have an honour to invite you to become a full member of The Academic Union, Oxford with all rights and privileges. In recognition of your merits in educational, scientific, educational and social activities, the Presidium of the Academic Union offered to award you the title of Honorary Professor of the Academic Union Oxford with life membership in the Academic Union and the Honorary Professors Expert Council.

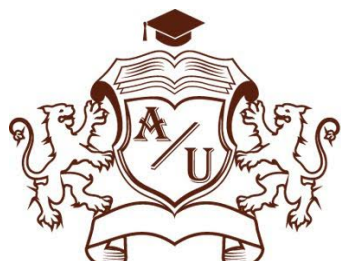

I'm pleased to invite you to the inauguration and presentation of the Honorary Professor attributes – professor's mantle, chain and personal certificate which will be held within online Achievements Forum on 25 March 2022. We are planning to showcase your achievements and have an online interview with you.

- Worldwide broadcast via Facebook and YouTube
- Presentation of your institution's achievements and sharing best practices with colleagues around the world
- Personalized interview to share your success story
- Promoting your establishment through the online exhibition 24/7

Academic Union Oxford created the distant packages for title holders and you can safely stay in your country, present Technological University of Selva online and receive your attributes via courier delivery service.

We kindly ask you to contact us for the award accreditation procedure before February, 20, and if you would like more information, please do not hesitate to address a member of our team who will be glad to answer any of your questions and provide additional details.
